

Applications for Orica's 2018 Graduate Program in Indonesia are now open.

Ignite your career with a truly global organization and the world leader in mining and civil blasting.

Our two-year graduate program for engineers provides diverse experience and personalized professional development.

We are developing our next generation of leaders. This means we are serious about your development and creating meaningful career opportunities. We offer you the experience and exposure across our business to accelerate your learning and leadership capability.

About Orica:

Orica is the world's largest provider of commercial explosives and innovative blasting systems to the mining, quarrying, oil and gas and construction markets, a leading supplier of sodium cyanide for gold extraction, and a specialist provider of ground support services in mining and tunneling. Orica has a diverse workforce of over 11,500 people servicing customers across more than 100 countries.

Degree's and Disciplines

Orica accepts graduates from a range of engineering disciplines including;

- Mining Engineering
- Chemical Engineering
- Mechanical Engineering

- Electrical Engineering
- Industrial Engineering

Eligibility

- Be an Indonesian Citizen
- Have completed your degree within the last two years
- Be willing to undergo a medical and drug screen
- Be willing to relocate for each rotation, sometimes to remote locations across Indonesia
- Have a minimum grade point average (GPA) of 3 out of 4
- Be living in Indonesia and be able to attend selection stages in person if required

To apply, please send your CV to graduate.indonesia@orica.com

Applications close on October 15th, 2017.